

“I just took an action to change the law..”

President Barack Obama, November 23, 2014, Chicago, Illinois

Under our Constitution, only Congress can make or change laws. But President Barack Obama is unconstitutionally re-writing immigration law on his own to grant virtual amnesty to millions of illegal aliens. Democrat Party strategist and frequent White House guest Robert Creamer says, “the immigration battle is ... important because it will have an enormous impact on the battle for power between the progressive and conservative forces in American society.” He says, “If we are successful [legalizing illegal aliens], a gigantic block [sic] of progressive voters will enter the electorate over the next 15 years — a block [sic] that could be decisive in the battle for the future..”^{*} But the U.S. Constitution does not permit a dictator in the White House to bypass Congress and make law for his party’s political benefit. And the American people won’t stand for it.
